Rights and Responsibilities
We will be entitled to take over and conduct in your name (at our expense) the defence or settlement of any claim or to prosecute in your name to our own benefit in respect of any claim for indemnity or damage or otherwise, and will have full discretion in the conduct of any proceedings or in settlement of any claim and you will give all such information and reasonable assistance as we require. 24 HOUR MEDICAL EMERGENCY SERVICE

IMPORTANT – please quote British Airways Insurance and your Validation Certificate or Client Receipt Number.

The ETI Emergency Assistance Service provides immediate help in the event of your illness or injury arising outside the United Kingdom, or Republic of Ireland if this is your normal country of residence, – they provide 24 hour multi-lingual emergency service 365 days a year and can be contacted by telephone, or fax.

Should a serious medical problem arise you must contact the ETI Emergency Assistance Service immediately.

Emergency telephone number: UK (+44) (0) 1444 452999
Fax: UK (+44) (0) 1444 454522

You are responsible in advising your attending doctor to seek prior approval for any treatment except in extreme circumstances where a request for prior approval would delay surgery in a life threatening situation or medical crisis. Failure to contact ETI Emergency Assistance Service may limit the benefits payable, or in certain circumstances, cover will not be provided.

When you call upon the services, it is a condition of the service that they shall solely be responsible for all decisions on the most suitable and reasonable solution to any medical problem. The service includes, where necessary:
1. Multi-lingual assistance with hospitals and doctors.
2. Repatriation arrangements and necessary escorts by a medical attendant.
3. Travel arrangements for other members of your party or next-of-kin.
4. On arrival in the United Kingdom, or Republic of Ireland if this is your normal country of residence, an ambulance service to hospital or home.

Please note: we are not responsible for the availability, quality or results of any medical treatment received by you. Also, this emergency service should not be used for casual enquiries.

PAYING MEDICAL BILLS ABROAD

British Airways hope that you will enjoy a leisure trip without any health problems, but should it be that you need emergency medical treatment then our Insurance Partner ETI will do its best via its international network to ensure that you need not worry about the payment of such medical services (other than a potential applicable policy excess).

Please, however, refer to the Medical Health Requirements on page 6 of this policy. Provided you have declared a pre-existing medical condition to us and we have accepted to insure it in writing, you may use ETI’s Emergency Assistance Service. Most hospitals/clinics/doctors have an agreement with ETI’s Euro-Center network in which case bills/invoices covering medical treatment (in-patient/hospitalisation or out-patient/doctors visits) will be forwarded directly to our local representatives by the hospital/clinic or doctor. In those cases you need not pay the medical expenses other than the Policy Excess (where applicable) during your trip. You will be required to fill in an ETI Claim Form, please retain a copy for your own records. If the treating facility argues that they do not co-operate with Euro-Center and request you to pay then you must contact ETI’s Assistance Company to clarify the situation. If you have to pay yourself then you should claim the medical expenses upon your return to the United Kingdom, or Republic of Ireland if this is your normal country of residence, by contacting the British Airways Claims Unit. The claim form will be available in the hospitals/clinics/doctors, or the local Euro-Center (refer to www.euro-center.com for addresses), or the ETI Assistance Company or from British Airways Claims Unit in the United Kingdom.

If you are travelling within the European Economic Area and carrying an E111 form or the European health insurance card, you should use the Form/Card to reduce the claim. If you do so the policy excess will not apply.

Definitions applicable to this section (in addition to the Words with Special Meaning Section)

Representative – The lawyer or other suitably qualified person who has been appointed by us to act for an Insured Person in accordance with the terms of this section.

Costs and Expenses

(a) Legal Costs – all reasonable and necessary costs chargeable by the Representative on a standard basis.

(b) Opponents’ costs – we will also pay the costs incurred by opponents in civil cases if an Insured Person has been ordered to pay them, or pays them with our agreement.

Date of Occurrence – the date of occurrence is the date of the event which may lead to a claim. If there is more than one event arising at different times from the same cause, the Date Of Occurrence is the date of the first of these events.

WHAT IS COVERED

We agree to provide the insurance in this section, as long as:

(a) the Date of Occurrence of the insured incident is during the Period of Insurance; and

(b) any legal proceedings will be dealt with by a court, or other body which we agree to; and

(c) for civil claims, it is always more likely than not that an Insured Person will recover damages (or obtain any other legal remedy which we have agreed to) or make a successful defence;

2) for all insured incidents, we will help in appealing or defending an appeal as long as the Insured Person tells us within the time limits allowed that they want us to appeal. Before we pay the Costs and Expenses for appeals, we must agree that it is always more likely than not that the appeal will be successful;

3) we will only pay the Legal Costs charged by a Representative appointed by us;

4) the most we will pay for all claims resulting from one or more events arising at the same time or from the same originating cause is £50,000. If the aggregate limit is reached this amount will be allocated in proportion to our liability to each Insured Person;

INSURED INCIDENTS

1) Bodily Injury – we will pay reasonable Costs and Expenses to pursue an Insured Person’s legal rights in a claim against a party who causes the death of, or bodily injury to, the Insured Person occurring outside the United Kingdom and the Channel Islands, or Republic of Ireland if this is your normal country of residence, to recover damages or compensation.

WHAT IS NOT COVERED UNDER BODILY INJURY

A claim relating to:

   b) The Insured Person is free to choose a Representative (by sending us a suitably qualified person’s name and address) if:
      i) we agree to start court proceedings and it becomes necessary for a lawyer to represent the interests of an Insured Person in those proceedings; or
      ii) there is a conflict of interest.
   We may choose not to accept the Insured Person’s choice, but only in exceptional circumstances. If there is a disagreement over the choice of Representative in these circumstances, the Insured Person may choose another suitably qualified person.
   c) In all circumstances except those in 1(b) above, we are free to choose a Representative.
   d) Any Representative will be appointed by us to represent an Insured Person according to our standard terms of appointment. The Representative must co-operate fully with us at all times.
   e) We will have direct contact with the Representative.

   b) If an Insured Person does not accept a reasonable offer to settle a claim, we may refuse to pay further Costs and Expenses.
   c) We may decide to pay the Insured Person the amount of damages that the Insured Person is claiming, or which is being claimed against them, instead of starting or continuing legal proceedings.

3) a) An Insured Person must tell the Representative to have Costs and Expenses taxed, assessed or audited, if we ask for this.
   b) An Insured Person must take every step to recover Costs and Expenses that we have to pay, and must pay us any Costs and Expenses that are recovered.

4) If the Representative refuses to continue acting for an Insured Person or if an Insured Person dismisses the Representative, the cover we provide will end at once, unless we agree to appoint another Representative.

5) If an Insured Person settles a claim or withdraws it without our agreement, or does not give suitable instructions to a Representative, the cover we provide will end at once and we will be entitled to reclaim any Costs and Expenses we have paid.

6) If we and an Insured Person disagree about the choice of Representative, or about the handling of a claim, we and the Insured Person can choose another suitably qualified person to decide the matter.
We and the Insured Person must both agree to the choice of this person in writing. Failing this, we will ask the president of a relevant national law society to choose a suitably qualified person. All costs of resolving the disagreement must be paid by the party whose argument is rejected.

7) We may, at our discretion, require the Insured Person to obtain, at their expense, an opinion from a lawyer, accountant or other suitably qualified person chosen by the Insured Person and us, as to the merits of a claim or proceedings. If the chosen person’s opinion indicates that it is more likely than not that an Insured Person will recover damages (or obtain any other legal remedy that we have agreed to) or make a successful defence, we will pay the cost of obtaining the opinion.

8) We will not pay any claim covered under any other policy, or any claim that would have been covered by any other policy if this policy did not exist.
