

TREASURES OF TENERIFE MAP

Explore the year-round wonder of Tenerife with our exclusive map drawn by acclaimed artist Anna Simmons and including travel suggestions sent in by you.

MAP KEY A-Z

- Almaciga
Remote watersport spot, which is great news for intrepid surfers who will have the bay's brilliant breaks to themselves.
- Anaga Forest Rural Park
Tucked away in the Anaga mountain range in the north east, this humid forest is home to rare Laurisilva, or laurel forests. If you love nature, it's a must.
- Arona/Costa Beach
This sandy beach in Arona sits above a swathe of warm Atlantic Ocean on Tenerife's southern slope and is perfect for long walks, watersports, or a spot of sunbathing.
- Auditorio de Tenerife Adan Martin
This concert hall is an emblematic Tenerife building, perched like a bird with its wings outstretched on the shoreline.
- Garachico
One of Tenerife's prettiest towns, Garachico is steeped in traditional Canarian character including cobbled streets and crumbling churches.
- Los Gigantes
Visit the Cliffs of the Giants and wonder at their spectacular geological formation! @JamesKenyon
- Icod de los Vinos – Cueva del Viento
Hidden below the district of Icod de los Vinos is a 27,000-year-old volcanic cavity that is Europe's largest lava tube is. Excellent English tours are available.
- La Laguna (UNESCO Heritage site)
One of two UNESCO world heritage sites on the island; green and balmy La Laguna is built around an easily navigable grid of tapas bars and antique shops and captures a beautifully preserved snapshot of Tenerife past.
- La Masca
The vast layered landscapes of La Masca are the ultimate place to visit! @starsjulie
- La Orotava – 'Lucas Maes'
Blink and you'll miss Lucas Maes, a very cool restaurant with an imaginative interior hidden away down a slip road in La Orotava.
- Las Teresitas beach – San Andres
This secret seaside tip is a sweeping curve of gold, with soft yellow sand imported from the nearby Sahara. Have seafood lunch in the nearby village of San Andres.
- Los Cristianos
Go see the gorgeous sunset over Los Cristianos and eat at The Belvedere- it has the best views & food! @aworby
- Market of our lady of Africa
This bustling market is a vibrant assault on your senses and souvenir heaven.
- Mount Teide (UNESCO Heritage site)
Rent a car and drive up Mount Teide for the most beautiful sunset and stargazing you will ever see! @CatBrodziak
- Museo de la Naturaleza y el Hombre
Boasting a striking neoclassical façade this museum explores the important archaeological heritage of the Canary Islands.
- Noria District
A thriving maze of pastel cottages, palm trees and gorgeous old buildings converted into bars and restaurants – none of which will disappoint.
- Parque Garcia Sanabria
Tenerife's green lung, this city centre park is an openair wonderland of overgrown bamboo walkways, classic Italian arches, scattered art and quiet romantic corners. Its magnetism is overwhelming.
- Playa de la Arena
Settle into a seafront restaurant, listen to local live music and sip a cocktail as the sun sets over a spotlessly clean Blue Flag beach.
- Playa San Juan
This diminutive and authentic Canarian gem has little rainfall so you can enjoy a beautiful beach bathed in sunshine and gorgeous sunsets.
- Puerta de la Cruz, including Loro Parque
This beautiful coastal town is well worth exploring and offers fabulous diving. On land, be sure to also visit Loro Parque – home to parrots of every conceivable colour.
- Siam Park
A huge Thai-themed water kingdom, Siam Park rivals any aqua park in Europe- take a deep breath before plunging down the Tower of Power's 28m drop.
- TEA – Tenerife Espacio de las Artes
A contemporary art museum with an exciting calendar of exhibitions, architecture buffs will also love this long modern complex full of glass and geometry.
