

CHRISTMAS IN NUREMBERG

Nuremberg is a city that radiates Christmas spirit.

Charming wooden market stalls with traditional handicrafts, a backdrop of mediaeval buildings, and the sweet scent of gingerbread and mulled wine make it a winter wonderland until Christmas Eve. It's just the right size and is packed with culture, history and authentic, traditional charm. The capital of the Franconia region, full of breweries making delicious red beer, vineyards making some of Germany's finest wines, and plenty for foodies.
