1038	PART 1 - EXECUTIVE CLUB FREQUENT TRAVELLER PROGRAM (Continued)
------	---

(B) MILEAGE ACCRUAL

- (1) Miles earned during a given calendar year will expire five years after the end of that year. Membership will expire after five years if the account is inactive.
 - (2) A member must give his/her Executive Club number to the reservations agent/travel agent each time reservations are made for travel on British Airways or for any qualifying travel, car rental, hotel stay, tour package or other service on or with any airline, car rental, hotel, tour operations, or other partner in the program. Failure to give complete information may result in earned mileage not being credited to the member's account.
 - (3) Mileage will be earned on all published fares for travel on qualifying British Airways and partner airline flights. Mileage will not be earned on consolidator, industry discount (travel agent), charter, infant or other unpublished fares or tickets. Travel taken on award tickets cannot be used to accrue mileage.
- NOTE: Mileage credit for a member's travel on British Airways shall be based on the World Airport Mileage Table distance between the cities where the members travel starts and finishes. For travel on connecting flights, mileage will be credited as the aggregate of the separate sectors of the trip, but on direct or through flights with one or more intermediate stops, mileage will be credited for the ticketed points of origin to destination of travel.
- (4) Only travel taken after member receives Executive Club number will be credited toward Executive Club awards.
 - (5) Retroactive flight and mileage partner credit may be claimed up to one year from date of travel (if that does not exceed the member's enrollment date) by submitting original boarding pass and original passenger receipt (or appropriate copy of hotel/car/partner receipts) to British Airways Executive Club.
 - (6) Mileage and points can only be accumulated one time per flight per membership account number, regardless of the number of seats purchased.
 - (7) Infant fares do not earn mileage. Children's fares (age 2 to 12) do earn mileage if child is included in a Household Account membership.
 - (8) Mileage credit and points will be given for qualifying class of travel paid, regardless of class of travel flown.
 - (9) Mileage and points will be credited to only one account and one frequent flyer program as selected by the member.
 - (10) Executive Club members will receive mileage credit for each qualifying partner transaction upon presentation of an Executive Club membership card, subject to restrictions set forth below:
 - (a) A hotel stay is defined as consecutive nights at one hotel, whether or not the member checks out and checks back in during the stay. Mileage will be earned for one room per member, regardless of number of rooms booked.
 - (b) Only one person per room or car rental will be credited with mileage. A member's name must appear on the hotel or car rental bill (and in the case of multiple names on a single bill, it must be the first name so appearing).
 - (c) Mileage for hotel stays is awarded on all corporate rates and above.
 - (11) Executive Club miles cannot be combined with the frequent flyer miles of other carriers, except as noted in the Mileage Transfer section as noted below.
