

REDUCTIONS TO BRITISH AIRWAYS CORPORATE CREDIT CARD FEES

As part of ongoing optimisation on credit card fees, effective as of 1 June 2022, there will be a reduction in corporate credit card charges. These new rates are reflective of the costs charged to British Airways by the credit card providers, which are assessed regularly.

Changes will impact the rates for the following cards:

- Mastercard Corporate Credit Card

Revised Corporate Credit Card Fee Levels

New percentage levels will be charged as of 1 June 2022, as indicated in the chart below:

	UK	Ireland	Finland	Germany	Netherlands	Switzerland
NEW Mastercard rate	1.1%	1.0%	1.0%	1.0%	1.0%	1.3%
EXISTING Mastercard rate	1.29%	1.27%	1.23%	1.26%	1.28%	1.49%

NOTE: These levels apply to the total ticket value (fare plus taxes, fees and charges including the Carrier Imposed Charge) up to a maximum of GBP20/EUR25/CHF30 per ticket.

All other rates will remain unchanged.

	UK	Ireland	Finland	Germany	Netherlands	Switzerland	Spain
Visa	1.35%	1.50%	1.50%	1.40%	1.40%	1.00%	1.0%
NEW Mastercard rate	1.1%	1.0%	1.0%	1.0%	1.0%	1.0%	1.3%
Amex	1.20%	1.20%	1.20%	1.20%	1.20%	1.20%	1.0%
Diners	1.50%	1.50%	1.50%	1.50%	1.50%	1.50%	1.0%
UATP	1.75%	1.75%	1.75%	1.75%	1.75%	1.75%	1.0%

Credit Card Fees apply to:

- Any ticket issued on a BA 125 ticket validation where the form of payment is a corporate credit card.
- All fare types
- Transactions made using British Airways' card acceptance agreements (Merchant Agreements)
- Flights involving interline travel or codeshare
- Prime ticket issue only and not to any subsequent reissue or revalidation.
- Changes will apply to all bookings made in the UK, Ireland, Finland, Germany, Netherlands and Switzerland via any agents, including online agents. Changes are made directly in ATPCO and will feed through to the GDS.

Note: The Credit Card Fee remains non-refundable
